ORIENTAL WHISPERS

Hidden in the alpine meadows of Sikkim, the rare Blue Poppy reveals its vivid, sky-blue petals during the cool summers. Delicate and fleeting, it reflects the subtle yet intricate flavors of the East—light, aromatic, and layered with the mystique of the mountains.

The background is a deep, dark purple with a subtle, repeating pattern of stylized leaves. Overlaid on this are several watercolor illustrations of Angel's Trumpet (Datura metel) plants. The leaves are palmately lobed, with five to seven leaflets, and are shown in various shades of green, some with yellowish-brown edges suggesting aging. The flowers are large, trumpet-shaped (funnel-shaped), and are depicted in soft, pale colors like light pink, peach, and cream. Some flowers are fully open, showing the characteristic lobed corolla and the long, slender tube. Others are in various stages of bloom or are buds. The illustrations are scattered across the page, with some appearing to be part of a larger plant and others as individual blossoms. A thin, gold-colored rectangular border frames the central text area.

CONTINENTAL FLAVORS

Blooming wild in Sikkim's hills during mild summers and early autumn, the Angel's Trumpet graces the landscape with its fragrant, trumpet-shaped blossoms, adding a mystical charm to the mountains. Its fleeting elegance mirrors the refined, delicate flavors of this menu.
